Women in Communications

Wednesday, 28th April 2021 | Online Event

in partnership with the PRCA, CIPR, CMA & IoIC [1]

Although the PR and communications industry is overwhelmingly female overall, the number of women at board director level and above remains stubbornly low.

Organised by Dods Parliamentary Communications and held in partnership with the IoIC, CMA, PRCA and CIPR, our unique Women in Communications conference seeks to provide current and future leaders with the skills needed to correct this imbalance. The unique conference explores the role of women in communications and offers practical advice and coaching on how to develop your career and leadership capabilities in times of change. We will discuss together how we can manage the challenges of modern leadership and help ensure we don't lose momentum in recognising and rewarding female leaders in communications.
