Professional Women Conference Series 2022-23

We are delighted to move our full Professional Women Conference Series back to in-person events. Please see below a list of our 2022-23 events calendar, all of which will be taking place face-to-face:

Women in Policing

Wednesday 16 November 2022 | In-person

Despite a steady rise in the number of women in policing over the past decade, the number of women in senior leadership ranks remains low. The Women in Policing Conference explores the role of women in policing and offers practical advice and coaching on how to further develop your career in times of change.

Women in Local Government

Thursday 8 December 2022 | In-person

Despite making up 78% of the local government workforce, women account for only 17% of local authority leaders and 33% of council chief executives – statistics which have hardly changed for a decade. Following successful events over the past three years, Women in Local Government returns online and in London in 2021 to offer practical advice and coaching on how to address the barriers affecting your progression.

Past Events

Women in Communications

Wednesday 28 April | In-person

Although the PR and communications industry is overwhelmingly female overall, the number of women at board director level and above remains stubbornly low. Organised by Dods Parliamentary Communications and held in partnership with the IoIC, CMA, PRCA and CIPR, our unique Women in Communications conference seeks to provide current and future leaders with the skills needed to correct this imbalance.
